

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
Plaintiff,
v.
ANTHONY RICHARD THURN,
Defendant.

Case No. 16 MJ 0001

ORDER OF DETENTION

I.

The Court conducted a detention hearing:

- ☐ On motion of the Government [18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1)] in a case:
allegedly involving:
() a crime of violence.
() an offense with a maximum sentence of life imprisonment or death.

() a narcotics or controlled substance offense with the maximum sentence of ten or more years.

() any felony – where defendant convicted of two or more prior offenses described above.

() any felony that is not otherwise a crime of violence that involves a minor victim, or possession of a firearm or destructive device or any other dangerous weapon, or a failure to register under 18 U.S.C. § 2250.

☒ On motion by the Government or on the Court's own motion [18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(2)] in a case allegedly involving, on further allegation by the Government of:

(X) a serious risk that defendant will flee

() a serious risk that the defendant will () obstruct or attempt to obstruct justice; () threaten, injure or intimidate a prospective witness or juror, or attempt to do so.

☐ The Court concludes that the Government is entitled to a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the defendant's appearance as required and the safety of any person or the community [18 U.S.C. § 3142(e)(2)].

II.

☒ The Court finds that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure: ☒ the appearance of the defendant as required.

☒ the safety of any person or the community.

☐ The Court finds that the defendant has not rebutted by sufficient evidence to the contrary the presumption provided by statute.

III.

The Court has considered: (a) the nature and circumstances of the offense(s) charged, including whether the offense is a crime of violence, a Federal crime of terrorism, or involves a minor victim or a controlled substance, firearm, explosive, or destructive device; (b) the weight of evidence against the defendant; (c) the history and characteristics of the defendant; and (d) the nature and seriousness of the danger to any person or the community. [18 U.S.C. § 3142(g)] The Court also considered all the evidence adduced at the hearing and the arguments, the arguments of counsel, and the report and recommendation of the U.S. Pretrial Services Agency.

IV.

The Court bases its conclusions on the following:

☒ As to risk of non-appearance:

Prior violations of parole and supervised release, defendant's current status on supervised release in three federal cases (bank fraud, felon in possession of a firearm and ammunition, and possession with intent to distribute methamphetamine), defendant's criminal record (including false ID to peace officer)

☒ As to danger to the community:

Defendant's criminal record (including assault with a firearm, inflicting corporal injury, carjacking, felon in possession of a firearm, and drug trafficking), prior violations of parole and supervised release, defendant's current status on supervised release in three federal cases (bank fraud, felon in possession of a firearm and ammunition, and possession with intent to distribute methamphetamine), and the instant allegations in complaint affidavit.

V.

- ☐ The Court finds a serious risk that the defendant will
- ☐ obstruct or attempt to obstruct justice.
- ☐ threaten, injure or intimidate a prospective witness or juror, or attempt to do so.

The Court bases its conclusions on the following:

VI.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the defendant be detained until trial.

The defendant will be committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal.

The defendant will be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel. On order of a Court of the United States or on request of any attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which defendant is confined will deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.
